TRAVELING MAKING POWER TO TAKE TO MINISTER.
BANCROFT—GERMAN AMERICAN TRIBUTE TO PARLIAMENT.

AT THE DEPARTURE OF THE MINISTER.
BANKRUPT, APRIL 4.—The Hon. George Bancroft, United States Minister at the Court of Prussia, has been duly commissioned from the State Department in Washington with full power to arrange and complete a treaty of commerce and navigation with the authorities of the North German Confederation and the members of the Zollverein.

A splendid flag of the North German Confederation, presented to the Parliament by the German citizens of New-Orleans, arrived in this city a few days ago.

The gift was formally accepted by the Parliament yesterday, and will be hung in the chamber.

The resolutions which were recently introduced in the Parliament of North Germany declaring in effect "that the members ought not to be held responsible for words uttered in debate in any other place" were carried by a large majority.

PARAGUAY.
GEN. LOPEZ'S SITUATION NOT SO BAD AS REPRESENTED.

PARIS, April 5.—The Standard has advice from the Rio de la Plata to the effect, which states that the situation of the Paraguayan President, Gen. Lopez, is not so desperate as the Brazilian accounts represent.

GREAT BRITAIN.
DISRAELI'S DEFEAT—OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

LONDON, April 4.—The defeat of the Ministry in the House of Commons last evening forms the chief topic of conversation. Nearly all the journals have editorial articles on the subject this morning.

The London Times says: "The Commons have resolved that this cancer of the empire (the Irish Church) shall be removed. The rejection of Lord Stanley's amendment, to postpone consideration until the next Parliament, and the adoption of Mr. Gladstone's resolution to go into Committee, are merely the first steps of the operation. The national will is soon to be expressed and it will be in no uncertain sound. It will insist that the work so happily begun shall be thoroughly performed. This morning's vote is the dawn of a reunited empire. Now Ireland may take confidence, from this vote, that she is sustained by the vast balance of opinion of the United Kingdom. The wrongs of ages are to be ended and right done amid the acclamation of the nation. This must guarantee peace."

The London Standard concludes a very able article with the following words: "This vote is the death warrant of the Irish Church. No fairer trophy has been won by the Liberal party since the Emancipation act of 1829."

The London Standard says: "The effect of this vote will be to waste the session without advancing the object proposed one single step."

THE UNIVERSITY BOAT-RACE.
The annual spring boat-race between the Oxford and Cambridge Universities took place to-day, over the usual course, from Putney to Mortlake, on the river Thames. The crews of both boats were in good condition, and excitement ran high, as it was anticipated, on account of the several changes that had been made in the Oxford crew, that the Cambridge men might regain their prestige and come out triumphant, notwithstanding their having been beaten seven years in succession. At an early hour both banks of the river were lined with spectators; and the two sides, extending for four miles, looked like two surging masses of blue, as the colors of Oxford are dark blue, and Cambridge light blue. Hammersmith bridge was one mass of human beings, waving to and fro like a dense sea of heads. The river was covered with boats of every description, and several steamers accompanied the race throughout without endangering the boats. The royal steam yacht of the Prince of Wales was present, containing the Prince and Princess and a number of other distinguished personages. The steamer Victoria freighted with Oxonians, a rival boat carrying the Cantabs, the Lotus carrying the umpire, Mr. J. W. Chitty, and Mr. Searle, the starter; a steamer chartered by Bell's Life in London (newspaper) laden with reporters, and several others fully laden with visitors followed on in the wake of the boats. The race was closely contested throughout, but by a strenuous effort on the last mile the Oxford's gradually forged ahead of their competitors and passed the goal three lengths ahead, amidst the most uproarious cheers of the thousands who lined the banks and crowded the decks of the innumerable river craft in attendance.

The race was four miles long, being half a mile shorter than that usually rowed, and the course was pulled over in 20 minutes. This makes the eighth time in succession that Oxford has been victorious, and it seems that Cambridge have not improved, as last year the Light Blue only beaten by half a length instead of three lengths. This race was inaugurated in 1829, and since then has been contested 15 times, out of which Cambridge was successful 10 times, and Oxford 15 times. The first race pulled in outrigger eights was in the year 1846, when the usual course, from Putney to Mortlake, distance four miles and a half, was made in 21 minutes and 5 seconds, which time they have never beaten yet. Last year, when Oxford won by half a length, it took them 22 minutes and 38 seconds to get over the distance, which is about the same ratio of speed as that accomplished yesterday, when four miles were accomplished in 20 minutes.

MEETING OF THE CABINET.
LONDON, April 5.—An important meeting of the Cabinet was held on Saturday to consider what action should be taken in view of the vote of Friday night on Mr. Gladstone's resolutions. It is reported that the Ministers decided to resign in case the Opposition should retain their large majority after the recess of Parliament.

MR. GLADSTONE'S MOTION ON THE IRISH CHURCH.
In the House of Commons on the 23d of March, Mr. Gladstone, who was received with opposition cheers, said: "The motion which I wish to make on the Irish Church will be in the form of three resolutions, to be moved in Committee on Acts relating to the Established Church in Ireland, and the terms of the three resolutions will be these:

"1. That in the opinion of this House it is necessary that the Established Church of Ireland should cease to exist as an establishment (Opposition cheers), due regard being had to the rights of the individual members of the property. (Tromatic Ministerial cheers and laughter.)

"That, subject to the foregoing considerations, it is expedient to prevent the creation of new personal interests by the exercise of any public patronage (cheers), and to confine the operations of the Ecclesiastical Commission of Ireland to the consideration of any involving individual rights, pending the final decision of Parliament."

"That a humble address be presented to Her Majesty, humbly to pray that, with a view to the purposes aforesaid, Her Majesty would be graciously pleased to place at the disposal of Parliament a sum of money, to be applied to the discharge of the duties of the Ecclesiastical Commission, and to the consideration of any involving individual rights, pending the final decision of Parliament."
